Give The Gift of GLOW!

Kate Somerville's NEW Corporate Gifting Program

The clients who come to my Los Angeles Clinic tell me time and again how much they love to give my products and services as gifts. My luxurious line offers the perfect combination of professional taste and personal touch. Now, with my new corporate gifting program, you too can thank your customers, delight your colleagues, and reward your employees with one of my specialized holiday gift sets.

Beyond traditional holiday gift giving, the products from my collection are also perfect to have on hand for charity donations, customer appreciation baskets, gift exchanges, and staff incentives. No matter what the occasion, a perfect complexion is always the perfect gift!
